From Little House to My House: Exploring History and Family Roles

Blaze a trail to new perspectives on home and family through historical fiction read-alouds. Students compare an episode from one of the "Little House" books by Laura Ingalls Wilder (in picture book format) with the author's life and with their own experiences.

Classroom Resources | Grades 2 – 5 | Lesson Plan | Unit

History Comes Alive: Using Fluency and Comprehension Using Social Studies

Let the power of imagination and inference serve as a "time machine" to bring Benjamin Franklin into the classroom! History and science come to life in a dialogue with Franklin the inventor, developed through lesson activities that incorporate research, imagination, writing, visual arts, and drama.

Classroom Resources | Grades K – 2 | Lesson Plan | Standard Lesson

Mail Time! An Integrated Postcard and Geography Study

Children write and receive postcards from friends and family, and then chart where all those postcards come from on a classroom map.

Classroom Resources | Grades K – 2 | Lesson Plan | Standard Lesson

Martin Luther King, Jr. and Me: Identifying with a Hero

This lesson provides ideas for celebrating Martin Luther King, Jr. Day by encouraging students to explore the connections between Dr. King and themselves through journaling and inquiry-based research.

Classroom Resources | Grades K – 2 | Lesson Plan | Unit

Packing the Pilgrim's Trunk: Personalizing History in the Elementary Classroom

Students make personal connections between their lives and those of Pilgrim children by following the Pilgrims' move to the New World, their daily lives and struggles and their first Thanksgiving.
